The Way of Man Mar 01 2020 Martin Buber was one of the most significant religious thinkers of the twentieth century. In this short and remarkable book he presents the essential teachings of Hasidism, the mystical Jewish movement which swept through Eastern Europe in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. Told through stories of imagination and spirit, together with Buber's own unique insights, The Way of Man offers us a way of understanding ourselves and our place in a spiritual world. 'There is something', he suggests, 'that can only be found in one place. It is a great treasure, which may be called the fulfilment of existence. The place where this treasure can be found is the place on which one stands.' Challenging us to recognize our own potential and to reach our true goal, The Way of Man is a life-enhancing book.

The Teachings of Jesus Dec 10 2020 This book is about the teachings of Jesus, not teachings about Jesus. It is not even about what the New Thought movement teaches about Jesus. It describes what Jesus taught about our place in the kingdom of God. It does not attempt to incorporate Jesus's teachings into the body of New Thought principles; nor does it attempt to explain the teachings of Jesus in New Thought terms. It is not a metaphysical after-thought, but a new thought on the teachings of Jesus. An uncommonly reasonable metaphysical interpretation of the teachings of Jesus — this book was written for open-minded seekers of Truth and wisdom, as well as free-thinkers of every denomination who have the courage to confront the challenge of a new thought. It is dedicated to those students, and to those who remember hearing the teachings of Jesus, but have turned away from what was being taught. These essays are intended for those who think that the teachings of Jesus cannot be reconciled with their spirituality, their liberality, and their rejection of religion. This book is dedicated to those who have thrown the baby out with the bathwater! Students of New Thought need not ignore the teachings of Jesus, even though they have rejected the doctrines commonly associated with them.

While new thoughts on the teachings of Jesus may be uncommon, these commentaries follow a common theme, a fundamental truth of Jesus' teachings: oneness with God. When read from that perspective, one can make perfect sense of what Jesus taught. Nevertheless, as everyone's perspective is unique to themselves, one person's views may appear rather peculiar to others. Thus, a new thought is always uncommon and must seem odd at first, even when it is your own. In this sense, there can be no common sense where insights are considered. There can be common books of prayers, doctrines we hold in common with others, agreements, covenants and shared beliefs, but inspiration will always be an uncommon awareness. These essays are not a common-sense commentary on the teachings of Jesus. They are not only uncommon in their content, but also in their lack of denominational precepts. The common approach to Gospel commentary is an attempt to make sense of Jesus' teachings from one's particular religious perspective; which may explain why common sense is an uncommon thing in the field of religion and spirituality. Even though most people search the teachings of Jesus for an endorsement of their denomination's theology, that was not Jesus's intent. He spoke to individuals, in a way, that required them to find the meaning of his words within themselves. The Teachings of Jesus: New Thoughts on the Gospels' Principles, Prayers and Parables facilitates this inner search, whether one starts from the New Thought perspective or traditional Christianity. This book does not speak on behalf of one denomination. It addresses the search that everyone must make for themselves. The intent herein is not to present well-worn truths in support of anyone's religious beliefs, nor used and abused truths, or an explanation of how these truths can be used to justify beliefs, doctrines and dogma. The intention is to provide a new thought on eternal truths as expressed in the teachings of Jesus. These truths are not new, and some of the thoughts found in these essays echo statements by other much older thinkers of new thoughts. However, eternal truths never get old, and they may be news to you. The Truth is never a new idea, but the inspiration it reveals is always a new thought.

Parable Church Mar 13 2021 In Parable Church, pastor and author Mike Burnette discovers in Jesus's parables a better approach to church life, one focused not on growth strategies or trendy principles, but on a focus towards cultivating the culture of the kingdom revealed through the teachings of Jesus' parables.

The Teachings of Don Juan May 07 2023 In 1968 University of California Press published an unusual manuscript by an anthropology student named Carlos Castaneda. The Teachings of Don Juan enthralled a generation of seekers dissatisfied with the limitations of the Western worldview. Castaneda's now classic book remains controversial for the alternative way of seeing that it presents and the revolution in cognition it demands. The Teachings of a Toltec Survivor Apr 01 2020 This shamanic artifact is based on the lectures given by Koyote the Blind during the esoteric course on Toltec teachings. Through autobiographical account and humor, the Nahual spoke to a group of spiritual seekers in 2007, during the Spring Equinox. These esoteric lectures are much more than data and ideas, they are a live invocation of otherworldly spaces that affected everyone present, triggering in them a transformation known as the Great Work. This book is a tool to attune the reader to that esoteric space, perhaps allowing those willing to pay attention to also participate of this sacred chamber of the Toltecs, who built the city of pyramids, Teotihuacan, to transform humans into gods, and who still now work behind the scenes to help the world meet the current challenges and attain the next stage of human evolution. Each lecture delivered during the course is in this book, but the book contains much more. It has been significantly improved from its first edition. New material has been added in each chapter, and more chapters have also been added. There is more information in this edition, as well as more exercises and more in depth explanations and illustrations. More importantly, this edition has been rewritten to make the material not only easier to understand and digest, but also to create in the reader the effects that being exposed to the live lecture created in the students that witnessed this course live. In the process of reading this esoteric book, the reader will go through something unique, profound, and transformational. This book is truly an artifact of Toltec art, and as such, it deals with the power of mastering perception-as the ancient Toltecs of Mesoamerica did in precolonial times.

How the Teachings of Jesus Could Save America Sep 30 2022 This is a book for all patriots who love America and want to see this nation return to its foundations of liberty, equality and opportunity for all people. Like Thomas Jefferson's famous "Jefferson Bible," Jason Newcomb's new book examines the ethical and moral teachings of Jesus without any reference to miracles or supernatural events. Newcomb's new book is even more concise; confining itself to the actual words that Jesus spoke. What emerges is a simple and beautiful ethical framework for a just society. This is a book for Christians and non-Christians alike. Christians will have an opportunity to explore the teachings of Jesus in a whole new way, with specific reference to the future of our culture. Non-Christians will get to see that the visionary doctrine of universal love which Jesus taught is a message for all people that is as relevant today as it was two thousand years ago.

Another Way of Seeing Jun 15 2021 A Course in Miracles contains a program of study whose completion promises inner peace. Its curriculum is designed to rid us of fear and return us to love. Its three volumes amount to a massive 1200 plus pages of theory and practice. Students of the Course find the Text, the volume in which the Course's philosophy is laid out across a vast and tortuous terrain of theory, particularly difficult to navigate. Another Way of Seeing guides you across that terrain by identifying the basic tenets of the Course. Devoting each chapter to one basic teaching, Another Way of Seeing explains the Course in clear and simple terms. It then does what no other book on the Course has done so far--it illustrates the Course at work. Each chapter concludes with a discussion of a piece of classical literature that shows the principles of the Course put into practice. Dr. Poresky, a literary scholar and professor, brings her appreciation and knowledge of A Course in Miracles together with her conviction that literature teaches us about ourselves and our relationships with others, and by combining the two, she shows you another way of seeing.

Spirit Woman Nov 20 2021 Lynn V. Andrews takes the reader with her as she goes on inward journeys with the help of the Sisterhood of the Shields, and relates the stories of others. Join her as she is initiated into the Sisterhood and creates her own shield, which will show her the nature of her spiritual path (Spirit Woman). Follow her to the Yucatan, where the medicine wheel leads her, and she is faced with the terrifying reality of the butterfly tree (Jaguar Woman). Enter the Dreamtime with her, where she emerges in medieval England as Catherine, and encounters the Grandmother, who offers to show Andrews how to make her life one of goodness, power, adventure, and love (The Woman of Wyrrd). Not all these stories describe the author's own spiritual experiences. Meet Sin Corazon, an initiate into the Sisterhood, whose husband abandons her. She nearly succumbs to her inner dark power and unleashes her rage on men and the Sisterhood (Dark Sister). Andrews also writes about the elder women of the Sisterhood: their loves, their lives, their losses (Tree of Dreams). Andrews shows us how to channel our own spiritual and intellectual energy and balance the need for love with the desire for power (Love and Power). She takes the reader on numerous spiritual journeys that inevitably uplift.

The Teachings of Ptahhotep Jul 29 2022 2016 Reprint of 1909 Edition. Full facsimile of the original edition, not reproduced with Optical Recognition Software. Originally published as "The Instruction of Ptah-Hotep" and also as "The Maxims of Ptahhotep," the work is believed by some scholars to be the oldest book in the world. Authorship is attributed to Ptahhotep, a vizier under King Isesi of the Egyptian Fifth Dynasty (ca. 2414-2375 BC). It is a collection of maxims and advice in the sebayt ("teaching") genre on human relations and are provided as instruction for his son. The work survives today in papyrus copies, including the Prisse Papyrus which dates from the Middle Kingdom and is on display at the Bibliotheque Nationale in Paris. There are considerable differences between the Prisse Papyrus version and the two texts at the British Museum. The 1906 translation by Battiscombe Gunn, published as part of the "Wisdom of the East" series and which is reprinted here, was made directly from the Prisse Papyrus, in Paris, rather than from copies. Some lessons include: Learning by listening to everybody and knowing that human knowledge is never perfect are a leitmotif. Avoiding open conflict wherever possible should not be considered weakness. Justice should be pursued and in the end it will be a god's command that prevails. Greed is the base of all evil and should be guarded against, while generosity towards family and friends is praiseworthy."

The Teachings of Red Cloud 1934 - Red Cloud's Lectures 1930-1932 Aug 06 2020 We reprint the original version of the book "The teachings of Red Cloud", published in 1934 including some of the first conferences held by Red Cloud between 1930 and 1932 that have never been printed before. In 2015 we found the teachings of the guide spirit of Estelle Roberts collected in the famous book "Red Cloud Speaks - My mission" that includes part of the communications occurred from 1935 to 1938. In 2016, with our great pleasure, we bring to light one more piece of the teachings that Red Cloud has communicated through its medium Estelle Roberts for 50 years. Traces of all these teachings had been missing for a long time.

Right because of the lack of historical information, we deem it appropriate to publish these rare documents just as we found them. These pages give the opportunity to broaden your knowledge of Red Cloud, the guide spirit who had announced to Maurice Barbanell the cooperation with Silver Birch. Red Cloud, like Silver Birch, pursued the mission of helping humanity to re-think, re-discover the idea of God in the full freedom of free will, trying to break the chains of dogmas or creeds. Yes, it is necessary to keep on spreading the teachings of Spiritualism, even in Italy. Throughout the centuries Spiritualism has always been hindered, yet, with different definitions from the one we use today, it is the oldest movement known in the world; it is always the same force of the Spirit that is in operation. The philosophy of teachings like the ones you will find in this book, reveals a true knowledge of the concept of God, one that does not need intermediaries like churches or theology. It reveals the bond of mediumship with God; it brings back to us the instruments we need to reason on religiosity. The demonstration mediumship gives us that life is eternal, that the spirit and the soul are immortal, has the purpose of bringing us back to the authentic knowledge of God, as Jesus already did. But Jesus Christ's teaching has been lost, in many of its aspects, by churches and by theology themselves. The teachings of Spiritualism lead us to understand why each form of mediumship is a sacred gift at God's service, always, whose purpose is not only to prove us that life is eternal, but also to make us aware that everything is in communion with God; we are all part of the infinite Spirit of God.

The Teachings of Don Juan Jan 03 2023 In this book, Carlos LCastaneda first introduces to the reader the elusive, magical, powerful, haunting and perplexing person of Don Juan, the Yaqui brujo, or sorcerer, whose apprentice Castaneda becomes. Their relationship - in which a reluctant and demanding Don Juan instructs Castaneda in the disciplines of becoming "a man of knowledge" by means of a series of mystical experiences and deceptively simple parables - has been described as "one of the most fortunate literary encounters since Boswell was introduced by Dr. Johnson."

The Teachings of The Rebbe - 5711 Jul 05 2020 In his discourses, translated here as, "The Teachings of the Rebbe," the Rebbe sheds light on the task and duty of our generation, the final generation of exile and the first generation of redemption, and the approach that we must adopt to attain and draw forth the revelation of HaShem, the Singular Intrinsic Unlimited Being Himself, blessed is He, in the here and now, culminating with the true and complete redemption for all mankind, literally.

The Analects of Confucius Sep 06 2020 The Analects of Confucius, are a record of the words and acts of the central Chinese thinker and philosopher Confucius and his disciples, as well as the discussions they held. The Chinese title literally means "discussion over [Confucius'] words." Written during the Spring and Autumn Period through the Warring States Period (ca. 479 BCE - 221 BCE), the Analects is the representative work of Confucianism and continues to have a tremendous influence on Chinese and East Asian thought and values today. For almost two thousand years, the Analects had also been the fundamental course of study for any Chinese scholar, for a man was not considered morally upright or enlightened if he did not study Confucius' works.

Teachings of Presidents of the Church: Heber J. Grant Jan 11 2021 Harold B. Lee, eleventh President of the Church and an Apostle for over three decades, bore humble witness from a full heart “that God lives, that Jesus is the Redeemer of the world.” With conviction born of years of service he said, “My humble prayer is that all men everywhere may understand more fully the significance of the atonement of the Savior of all mankind, who has given us the plan of salvation which will lead us into eternal life, where God and Christ dwell.” The journey home to our Father in Heaven was a central focus of President Lee’s teachings to the members of the Church. He exhorted each of Heavenly Father’s children to “gain for himself that unshakable testimony which will place his feet firmly on the pathway which leads surely toward the glorious goal of immortality and eternal life.” “The most important message that I can give to you and to all the world is to keep the commandments of God,” said President Lee, “for thereby you can qualify yourselves to receive divine guidance while you live here on the earth, and in the world that lies ahead be prepared to meet your Redeemer, and to gain your exaltation in the presence of the Father and the Son.” The First Presidency and Quorum of the Twelve Apostles have established the series Teachings of Presidents of the Church to help Church members deepen their understanding of gospel doctrines and draw closer to Jesus Christ through the teachings of the prophets in this dispensation. This book features the teachings of President Harold B. Lee, who said: “The laws of God given to mankind are embodied in the gospel plan, and the Church of Jesus Christ is made responsible for teaching these laws to the world.” “Let there be burned into your souls those lessons that shall keep you always with your eye fixed upon the eternal goal, so that you won’t fail in life’s mission, so that, whether your life be short or long, you shall be prepared when the day comes to go into the presence of Him whose name you bear as a member of the Church of Jesus Christ in these latter days.” Each chapter in this book includes four sections: (1) a question that briefly introduces the focus of the chapter; (2) the “Introduction,” which illustrates the messages of the chapter with a story or counsel from President Lee; (3) “Teachings of Harold B. Lee,” which presents important doctrines from his many messages and sermons; and (4) “Suggestions for Study and Discussion,” which encourages personal review and inquiry, further discussion, and application to our lives today through questions.

The Teachings of Rao: The Spiritual Avatar of the Red Sun Jan 29 2020 This book presents the Teachings of Rao, the God of Krypton. By using a few references from other places, I analyzed from a scientific orientation that shows through the model of a Tree of Life of how it relates to modern scientific models as Russell Quantum Mechanics and Psychology. The teachings reveal the secret wisdom about the nature of the universe and of the psyche as well as a path to make the journey, through transformation, from mortal to immortal, from man/woman to superman/superwoman. The goal is to reclaim your state of balance and harmony with the Absolute. This was the notion of the summon bonum or greatest good, that we should aspire to. A superman or supergirl that I am referring to isn't the comic book version with superpowers. I am talking about more of the Nietzsche's concept, the Übermensch. It's about being psychological superior than we are today, the supermen and women will live by their own values as not seen since we followed those values more ""Pagan"" in nature.

The Secret Teachings of Jesus Jul 17 2021 In December 1945, two Egyptian fellahin, digging for natural fertilizer in the Nile River valley unearthed a sealed storage jar. The jar proved to hold treasure of an unexpected sort: a collection of some fifty-two ancient manuscripts, most of which reflect the teachings of a mystical religious movement we call Gnosticism (from the Greek word gnosis, "knowledge"). The texts are also, with few exceptions, Christian documents, and thus they provide us with valuable new information about the character of the early church, and about the Gnostic Christians within the church. In this volume, Marvin W. Meyer has produced a new English translation for general readers of four of the most important and revealing of these early Christian texts -- the Secret Book of James, the Gospel of Thomas, the Book of Thomas, and the Secret Book of John.

Meet the Rabbis Oct 08 2020 "What does Jesus' Sermon on the Mount have in common with the ancient literature of the Jewish rabbis? Much more than most Jewish and Christian people often realize! Jesus was addressed as rabbi, as were the most devout teachers in the synagogues of his day. Despite the common values and Scriptures shared by these two great religions, many Christians have little knowledge of the great Jewish rabbis who wrote from the time of Jesus and the writing of the New Testament in the first century to the completion of the Talmud in the seventh century. Young believes this ignorance of the important literature and religious leaders of that period has caused an unnecessary division between the adherents of both religions."--BOOK JACKET.
