#1 New York Times bestselling author of Hopeless joins forces with the New York Times bestselling author of Mud Vein. Together, they have created a gripping, romantic tale unlike any other. "How odd to be made of flesh, balanced on bone, and filled with a soul you've never met." Charlize Wynwood and Silas Nash have been best friends since they could walk. They've been in love since the age of fourteen. But as of this morning...they are complete strangers. Their first kiss, their first fight, the moment they fell in love...every memory has vanished. "I don't care what our real first kiss was," he says. "That's the one I want to remember." Charlize and Silas must work together to uncover the truth about what happened to them and why. But the more they learn about the couple they used to be...the more they question why they were ever together to begin with. "I want to remember what it feels like to love someone like that. And not just anyone. I want to know what it feels like to love Charlie." Mother Publishes the Secret Love Advice She Gave to Deceased Son. "Once a sworn secret between mother and son is now shared with the world as part of Chance's legacy!" Years after the tragic passing of my son at just 23, I decided to publish the private dating and relationship guidebook I wrote for him when he was coming of age and looking for love. When a parent loses their child one of their greatest fears is that the world will forget their child. You search your heart and soul to find a way they will be remembered forever. Now I know it's entirely possible that Chance probably wouldn't have been known worldwide perhaps more known in his world of family and friends but I will never know that for sure. Thanks to my daughter, Crystal, who kept pushing me to publish the book; I don't know if I would have done so, you see when Chance passed away I put THE GUYED BOOK with all of his belongings in safe keeping forever. These last three years have been quite the journey of tears, smiles, love, and even fear! A book that started as a lovingly comprised between mother and son years later became a village of loving family and friends assisting me in the destiny to my son's legacy. How did the book begin? The book was borne when Chance was in high school. He came to me and asked for some straightforward pointers on love, women, and romance. My tips and advice were so effective that Chance asked me to write them down. The pages of advice eventually grew into an organized, secret "Guy-ed" book for Chance. And why a secret because he didn't want his bro's and ladies aware that he was going to his mom for advice. He was very enthusiastic about the encouraging results. The young ladies comments were; "He's a keeper." "He listens to me." "He makes me feel very special." "He knows how to treat a woman." "He's so into me; he gets me." "He's so romantic." THE GUYED BOOK worked for my son, Chance and I guarantee it will work for you! I know my son and angel would love for me to share our book with the world as part of his legacy and a mother's wish come true! "A portion of book sales will be donated to The Rise and Shine Foundation in Chance's name. "www.theriseandshinefoundation.com Three of #1 New York Times bestselling author Colleen Hoover's most irresistible books, Ugly Love, Maybe Someday, and the novella Maybe Not, gathered together in one collection for the first time. Ugly Love: When Tate Collins meets airline pilot Miles Archer, it isn't exactly love at first sight. But there is an undeniable mutual attraction. Once their desires are out in the open, they realize they have the perfect set-up: he doesn't want love, she doesn't have time for a relationship, so that just leaves the mind-blowing sex. The arrangement could be seamless, as long as Tate never asks about the past and doesn't expect a future. Maybe Someday: Sydney's perfect life is thrown into disarray when she discovers that her boyfriend is cheating on her, and she finds herself captivated by her mysterious neighbor, Ridge. Sydney can't take her eyes off him or stop listening to the passionate guitar music he plays every evening. As the music swells, they soon find themselves needing each other in unexpected ways. Maybe Not: Warren needs a roommate. Enter cold, calculating Bridgette. Tensions run high and tempers flare as the two can hardly stand to be in the same room together. But Warren has a theory: anyone who can hate with such passion must also have the capability to love with such passion. Will Bridgette find herself finally able to love? It was a beautiful fall day in Connecticut when Colleen Kelly Alexander, a lifelong athlete, rode her bike home from work. She had survived both a diagnosis of lupus and brain surgery, had a fulfilling career, and was married at last to the love of her life. Everything was good as she coasted along, meeting the eyes of a truck driver as he approached the stop sign beside her. He didn't stop. The truck hit Colleen, running over her lower body with front and back tires and dragging her across the pavement. As she bled out in the street, nearby strangers surrounded her and the driver attempted to get away. An EMT herself, Colleen knew she had to stay awake. "I've just been reconnected with my soulmate," she told the medic. "We want to have a baby. I can't die now. Please don't let me die." Five weeks in a coma and twenty-nine surgeries later, Colleen survived. Rather than let the trauma and PTSD control her life, she became determined to find a way to make something positive from her pain. She decided she'd run again

and dedicate her race medals to the everyday heroes around us, including the medical staff and blood donors who saved her life. Since then Colleen has run fifty races and completed forty triathlons, including four half-Ironman events. Now a spokesperson for the Red Cross, Colleen shares her incredible inspirational story to encourage others to take that first step forward. A mysterious crying in the night leads a woman to an abandoned baby. Against objections from her husband, she takes in the baby and every thing she thought she knew about her life is turned upside down. "Maine. Liv Ridgely is a stay at home mom, caretaker of elderly parents, supporter of husband Oscar's career, savior of her wayward sister. With her son off to college, and her daughter a year away from following him, Liv looks to establish her dream career of bringing beautiful old homes back to life. Then she learns that 16-year-old Hazel is three months pregnant. Liv and Oscar have very different ideas about what to do. As the family fractures, past resentments and pain come tumbling out. After years of putting others first, can Liv do what's best for her daughter, her parents, and her marriage - while still being true to herself?"--Publisher description. Par la plus grande auteure de romance aux États-Unis ! n°1 dans la liste des best-sellers du New York Times • n°1 dans la liste USA today • 3 000 avis positifs sur Amazon • 100 000 avis positifs sur Goodreads • En tête des ventes en Allemagne, Grande-Bretagne, Italie, etc. Après Maybe Someday, voici le deuxième titre de Colleen Hoover publié chez Hugo Roman. Quand Tate Collins rencontre Miles Archer, elle sait que ce n'est pas le coup de foudre. Et pour cause, le beau pilote n'a de temps que pour les aventures sans lendemain. Ils ne peuvent pourtant pas nier leur attraction mutuelle, aussi immédiate que brûlante. Alors pourquoi ne pas se laisser séduire, quand le sexe est si bon ? Pas d'attaches, simplement la passion... Leur arrangement semble parfait, tant que Tate accepte de respecter les deux règles de Miles : Pas de question sur le passé, Ne pas espérer de futur. Cependant, ils vont vite comprendre que le coeur ne suit pas d'autres règles que les siennes. L'amour, même quand il n'est pas une évidence, sera-t-il plus fort que leurs promesses ? 'What an engaging story! I laughed out loud... Couldn't put it down! You need to read this.'

Goodreads reviewer, 5 stars Twenty-nine-year-old Lily Buckley planned to be happily married and in her dream job by now. Instead she's been single since being left at the altar three years ago, and works at her local paper, writing about giant vegetables at the village fete and a dog who looks exactly like Chewbacca. Not quite what she was dreaming of. So when Lily's given the opportunity to write her own column it's exactly what she's always wanted – except what she has to write about. She has to do one thing every week that scares her. With encouragement from sexy colleague – and adrenalin-junkie – Christopher, Lily agrees. From sky-diving to haunted houses, Lily is going to be pushed to her limit. And since heartbreak has left her afraid of falling in love again, her growing feelings for Christopher might just push her past it... But then her mum has a crisis, her column is the only thing keeping her – and her colleagues' – jobs afloat, and Christopher's ex arrives with her sights set on a romantic reunion. Suddenly jumping out of a plane is the least of Lily's problems... Can she save her family, her friends, and her heart – or will Lily let her fears hold her back? An uplifting, feel-good story about friendship, romance, and finding the hero inside yourself. Fans of Marian Keyes, Mhairi McFarlane and Sophie Kinsella will love Colleen Coleman! THERE IS NO MAGIC IF THERE IS NO ENERGY Magic is more than words, gestures and visualization. The definition of magic: "to bring about change in conformity to will" calls for change to be made in a situation. Change requires energy. Energy in, Change out Yes, you can input some energy through the burning of candles and incense, and the "sacrifice" of other material forms, but the real foundation for magical success comes from the ability of the magician to channel energy from its ultimate source. That energy flows through the magician to be expressed and transformed guided by his focused intent. This new book, "Energy for Life," not only teaches the reader how to tap into the Universal Life Force but the accompanying audio CD enables the user to do so through expertly crafted guided meditation "carried" into the user's deep unconscious by specially composed musical accompaniment. Finalist for the Coalition of Visionary Resources Award for Best Alternative Health/Healing Book "Fallon meets Ben, an aspiring novelist, the day before her scheduled cross-country move. Their untimely attraction leads them to spend Fallon's last day in Los Angeles together, and her eventful life becomes the creative inspiration Ben has always sought for his novel. Over time and amidst the various relationships and tribulations of their own separate lives, they continue to meet on the same date every year. Until one day Fallon becomes unsure if Ben has been telling her the truth or fabricating a perfect reality for the sake of the ultimate plot twist. Can Ben's relationship with Fallon--and simultaneously his novel--be considered a love story if it ends in heartbreak?"--

Hi there, person judging this book by the cover. (Are there other ways to buy a book?) Since it caught your eye, maybe you have a nagging sense that you're supposed to be doing more with your life-but no idea how to figure it out, since you live in an overwhelming world. I had that problem, too, and did all the wrong things to fix it. Then, I learned what people regret most when they die, and studied what the best thinkers of humanity have said about how to not waste your brief blip on Earth. Turns out, there are only 7 questions that matter in life-but most of us never ask them, and live far beneath our potential as a result. If you read this book and answer these 7 questions for yourself, you'll find purpose, develop confidence, expand your income (maybe quadruple it, like I did), and enjoy countless other benefits. If you do this and end up on your death bed with regrets in 80 years, I'll personally return your money. This book is a message from Source to assist in the evolutionary times we are in. The authors riveting accounts of other worldly experiences will have you binging this 111 page message of oneness. Cover by artist Ela Bankey. "This is the hopeful book we all need right now. Piper Parrish's life on Frick Island—a tiny, remote town smack in the middle of the Chesapeake Bay—is nearly perfect. Well, aside from one pesky detail: Her darling husband, Tom, is dead. When Tom's crab boat capsized and his body wasn't recovered, Piper, rocked to the core, did a most peculiar thing: carried on as if her husband was not only still alive, but right there beside her, cooking him breakfast, walking him to the docks each morning, meeting him for their standard Friday night dinner date at the One-Eyed Crab. And what were the townspeople to do but go along with their beloved widowed Piper? Anders Caldwell's career is not going well. A young ambitious journalist, he'd rather hoped he'd be a national award-winning podcaster by now, rather than writing fluff pieces for a small town newspaper. But when he gets an assignment to travel to the remote Frick Island and cover their boring annual Cake Walk fundraiser, he stumbles upon a much more fascinating tale: an entire town pretending to see and interact with a man who does not actually exist. Determined it's the career-making story he's been needing for his podcast, Anders returns to the island to begin covert research and spend more time with the enigmatic Piper—but he has no idea out of all the lives he's about to upend, it's his that will change the most. USA Today bestselling author Colleen Oakley delivers an unforgettable love story about an eccentric community, a grieving widow, and an outsider who slowly learns that sometimes faith is more important than the facts. This bedtime breathwork book will help you guide your child to a peaceful night's sleep. A retelling of Beauty and the Beast Lucy Marsh has lost everything but her determination to provide for her brother and sister. When she realizes her father's death was no accident, she decides to accept a proxy marriage in order to get her siblings out of harm's way. But trouble follows her to Wichita Falls, Texas, and nothing there is as she expected. Throughout my captivity, I was never told what was going to happen next or why. This lack of knowledge was used by Master to maintain a continuous element of fear and control over me. Anytime I was taken out of the box, I never knew what to expect. Fear of the unknown was always with me as I was kept in the dark both physically and mentally. This lack of knowledge may have been a good thing in one sense. If I had known the length of my entombment after returning from Riverside, I'm not sure I would have survived. Of course, I'm not sure even Master knew how long he was going to keep me in the box. A few days passed then a few more. Then weeks passed followed by months. Months slowly turned into years. I would spend the next three years of my life (1981-1984) in the box sleeping, dreaming, and praying. I have to assume my lengthy confinement in the box came about because Master was concerned he had given me too much freedom. Maybe he felt he was losing control of his slave. Too many neighbors had seen me, and questions about my status in the Hooker household were surely to arise. A fast thinking family member in Riverside may have copied down his vehicle tag number. What if the police knocked on his door one day looking for Colleen Stan? What if they searched the mobile home? Would anyone think to look under a waterbed for the girl in the box? Master wanted to keep me out of sight until the heat had passed. The other reason for putting me into storage was Ma'am. I'm sure she wanted me out of her life, out of her children's lives, and out of her husband's life. Master was not ready to let his slave go. Cloistering was the only answer. My daily routine soon became predictive as I was allowed out late in the evening after the girls had gone to bed. I emptied my bedpan, drank a large glass of water, and ate cold leftovers in the front bathroom. Sometimes the leftovers were true leftovers that had been out all day and the family didn't want.

Martin County Library. A cloth bag containing 10 copies of the title, including: regular print, 1 large print copy, may also include a folder. Cassie McTiernan is fine. She doesn't need advice. She doesn't need a boyfriend. She has a job, friends and a cat. She doesn't want you poking around in her business. Sure, she thought about writing once, but that was a stupid idea, according to her mother. Now she drinks a glass or bottle of wine to drown distressing thoughts. Her friends don't think she's fine. Why else would they betray her? Why else would they invade her privacy? Who sets a person up on an online dating site anyway? Men of the Year is a simple love story complicated by an unwilling heroine; a catalog of dating foibles taken from real life experiences. Follow Cassie, if you dare, through an obstacle course studded with inept, shy, rude, non-communicative, freaky, smelly, too artistic men. You know these men: the one who can't put his cell phone down for one second or the one who thinks his penis is the most beautiful site in the world. If none of the troubles that befall her have happened to you, count yourself lucky. You must have met your partner at a bar or your younger sister's wedding. Distant Echoes It feels like paradise, but deadly secrets lie beneath the waves off the coast of Kauai. Sometimes Kaia Oana thinks her dolphins are more humane than humans. As a mammal intelligence researcher, Kaia has learned a thing or two about the goodness and intelligence of dolphins—and as a natural scientist in close proximity to weapons developers, she's learned a thing or two about humans as well. Without a Trace Bree thinks a plane crash took the lives of her husband and young son, but her son Davy survived the accident. Can she find him before it's too late? It's been months since the crash. K-9 search-and-rescue worker Bree Nicholls knows the chances of finding her husband and son in the vast wilderness of Michigan's Upper Peninsula grow more remote by the day. But her heart and her faithful dog, Samson, demand she keep searching. Lonestar Sanctuary In the quiet safety of the Bluebird Ranch, old promises resurface and unexpected love brings new hope. Though tragedy has wrecked her life, Allie Siders holds on to the hope that her five-year-old daughter, Betsy, will speak again. But with a stalker out for revenge, all Allie can think about now is their safety. She must sever all ties and abandon life as she knows it. She heads to the peaceful Bluebird Ranch, nestled deep in Texas hill country, and to the only person who can help them. The Lightkeeper's Daughter With the lies of the past behind her, Addie finds love . . . and discovers her true Father. Addie Sullivan leads a quiet life in a northern California lighthouse. She mourns the death of her father and endures her mother's bitterness, until the night a storm brings an injured stranger and a dark secret to her home. The man insists she is not who she thinks she is, but rather "Julia Eaton"—the child long lost and feared dead by her wealthy family. Seizing the chance to be reunited with the Eatons, Addie leaves her lighthouse home but decides to keep her true identity a secret until they can unravel the mystery. Blue Moon Promise Lucy Marsh's worldly resources are running out, but she's fiercely determined to care for her younger brother and sister. When she discovers that their father's recent death was no accident, Lucy is eager to leave town. She accepts a proxy marriage she believes will provide safe refuge. But trouble follows her to Texas where her new husband is surprised to suddenly have a wife and children to care for. Tidewater Inn Welcome to Hope Beach. Book Delisted Daniel does not believe in love at first sight until he lays eyes on Six, a girl with a quirky personality, but a secret from the past could jeopardize their chance at happily ever after. Divorce can be extremely traumatic to families, especially children. This book takes us through a myriad of emotions that two children, Stephen and Alex experience through this tumultuous period. The children, especially Alex, give an extremely candid and honest account of the day-to-day trauma, the hostility, and, at times, the many poignant memories that he has. Living With Mon, Spending Time with Dad also addresses the concerns and anguish of being torn between two parents. Throughout the story there is that underlying hope that everything will turn out alright and everyone will be back in their original comfort zone. This book is truly endearing and tugs at your heart strings, particularly with the fervent prayer from Alex that God will make everything alright again. This is a family book that realistically, insightfully, and sensitively depicts what happens when a family is torn apart by divorce. It is a must read for children and parents to know they are not alone in their feelings, and to understand, in time, life goes on and things do work out.
